Sponsor the Hoosier Chapter

The Public Relations Society of America (PRSA) Hoosier Chapter represents public relations and communications professionals throughout Indiana, including employees of associations, agencies, corporations, universities, nonprofits, government and independent practitioners.

370+ chapter members — one of the largest chapters in the United States.

300+ companies represented, including marketing decision-makers from some of Indiana's largest employers, and agencies working with local and national brands.

PRSA Hoosier Chapter Offers Member Benefits

- Pinnacle Awards, the chapter's annual awards event recognizing professional and student talent in the industry.
- Half Day with Pro, the chapter's annual professional development day pairing students from 13 Public Relations Student Society of America (PRSSA) chapter members with individuals in the industry.
- Professional accreditation preparation courses offered at no charge to chapter members, providing the foundation and coaching to take the industry's national accreditation test.
- Professional development, including monthly education luncheons, high-value Meet the Media sessions and networking events that allow for peer-to-peer sharing of industry best practices.
- Affiliation with the PRSA Foundation, an independent 501(c)(3) non-profit working hard to make a difference in the fight for ethnic and racial balance in public relations.
- A deep history of educating the most successful well-known public relations professionals in Indiana.

"Nearly 20 years into my professional career, the APR Readiness course offered at no cost to Hoosier Chapter members was an invaluable tool to help me prepare for the APR exam. I'm proud to be part of a chapter that places a high value on professional development and credibility among communication professionals."

- Media Oakes, APR, manager of communications at Calumet Specialty Products

"The Indianapolis Neighborhood Housing Partnership (INHP) chose to sponsor the Hoosier Chapter because it was an opportunity for us to raise awareness of our brand to statewide peers and show our support of ethical communications and continuing education. It even provided us an opportunity to recruit qualified talent and promote the chapter to our current team members."

- Morgan Hoover, CFRE, VP of philanthropy and marketing at INHP, a 2019 PRSA Sponsor
